

A scenic view of the Atlanta skyline at sunset, with the city's skyscrapers reflected in a calm body of water. The sky is filled with soft, golden light, and the water shows a clear reflection of the buildings and the sky. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.

Piedmont Park Walking and Jogging Paths

The Route

Distances are provided below for running routes. It is recommended for safety that one should stay on the designated path and not run alone after dark.

Active Oval ●●●●●●●●

0.7 miles. The Active Oval circuit uses roads that circle the ballfields. It has a moderate grade, from a low point by the Visitor Center to a high elevation at the north end of the Active Oval. The distance around the Active Oval gravel running path is .52 mile.

Lake Loop ●●●●●●●●

0.96 miles. The Lake Loop circuit uses roads that circle Clara Meer. It has a very constant grade, with little change in elevation.

Lake and Active Oval ●●●●●●●●

1.15 miles. This circuit makes a loop around both the lake and ballfields. Although longer than the Active Oval circuit, this circuit has similar elevation change.

Park Loop ●●●●●●●●

1.68 miles. The Park Loop is the longest circuit with the greatest elevation change. This circuit adds a loop around The Meadow, which is .66 miles, to the Lake & Active Oval circuit. Its low point is in the Meadow while the highest point is north of the Active Oval.

Tips

- Drink plenty of liquids before, during and after jogging.
- Jogging is at your own risk. For your safety, jog only during daylight hours, preferably with a companion.
